(JACKSON, MI) November 27, 2017 – Great Lakes Caring Home Health and Hospice presented Victorian Manor Assisted Living with a 2017 Award for Excellence for providing superior quality care to their residents and patients. From over 1,500 candidates (skilled and assisted living facilities, physicians, and hospitals), in Kansas, Illinois, Indiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, Missouri and Ohio, 291 were selected for this annual award.

"It's important to recognize our partners who are significantly committed to their residents' and their patients' best interests," said Great Lakes Caring Chief Executive Officer Adam Nielsen. "This is the eleventh year Great Lakes Caring Home Health and Hospice has recognized our outstanding partners for their care."

The honorees were chosen based on three specific criteria:

- 1) their belief in the importance of good communication between Great Lakes Caring and partner's staff;
- 2) keeping in mind the needs of residents/patients and the importance of making timely referrals;
- 3) and for supporting and understanding the importance of collaborative care when a patient is in need of hospice, palliative or home health care.
